

HIGHLAND AND ISLANDS BLOOD BIKES

ARE LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER PR MANAGER

Are you interested in promoting the work of Highland and Islands Blood Bikes by preparing and uploading content across social media whilst assisting us in developing other promotional materials?

Excellent written skills alongside good computer/ internet/ social media knowledge should be paired with an interest in seeking out opportunities to promote the work of this small but vibrant charity .

Skills in networking and liaising with other volunteers will underpin your ability to shape and share news, images and other content, both externally and internally.

This is a volunteer position with variable hours which can be worked around other commitments so may appeal equally to recently retired or full-time/ part-time workers with an interest in gaining further PR experience.

Please contact us for further information or apply directly by emailing, with a CV, to secretary@haibloodbikes.co.uk
